Universidad Pontificia Bolivariana

The UPB aspires to a promotion, projection and integration at a regional and international scale, through programmatic strategies in each of its functions: teaching, research, extension and cooperation for development, thanks to the establishment and reinforcement of projects, agreements and technical, scientific and investigation cooperation networks. It supports professors, students, graduates and the whole Bolivarian community in developing their capacity to interact within different cultural contexts, with people from different countries, social and political systems, languages and cultures.

In this perspective, it offers consulting and support services regarding everything related to opportunities to study abroad in Pregrado (undergraduate programs) and Posgrado (postgraduate programs), and financing possibilities; it coordinates relations and strategic cooperation conventions with universities of Colombia and of the entire world, with the institutions that unite the national and international academic sectors, and with public, private and third-sector institutions and organizations.

The office for international studies offers the following services

- Administration of exchange agreements to promote the mobility of the UPB community.
- Consulting regarding studying abroad, whether it is for languages classes or a Master.
- Information about scholarships and study abroad opportunities.
- General information about visas and useful tips for travelling.

Services to foreign students

- Contacts to help you find accommodation.
- Information about life in Colombia and at the UPB.
- A student guide.
- Information about visas and conditions to enter the country legally.

ESPEX // Spanish classes for foreigners

Is a Spanish program for foreign students created at UPB Language Center to meet the demand for Spanish learning programs offered not only to foreigners, but also to customers or institutions abroad.

Incoming Students' Guide

Exchange semester at the UPB

If your university in Colombia or abroad has an exchange agreement with the UPB, you will be able to take courses from your degree and obtain the corresponding credits.

Besides, the university offers a large choice of subjects related to religion, culture, history, anthropology, philosophy, political aspects of Colombia and Latin America, amongst others. Multidisciplinary programs.

The documents you will need to send for an exchange semester at UPB under agreement

- Duly completed form with the subjects you wish to take at the UPB and program of study.
- A copy of grades from your home university (in English or in Spanish).
- Level of Spanish B1 (certification) English courses are available in our International Business Program
- A short Curriculum Vitae (CV).
- Copy of your passport.
- If you are accepted, you will have to take out national or international health insurance that covers you in Colombia during your stay.

All documents must be sent in a PDF format with the candidate's name and university of origin: Example:

"JuanMuller-UniversidadABC.pdf". File size cannot exceed 10 Mb.

If your university does not have an exchange agreement for undergraduate or postgraduate degrees with the UPB, you will be able to come as a Visiting Student (free mover).

The conditions are the same as mentioned above, but you will also have to pay the UPB tuition fees, student card and UPB emergency insurance. For more information:

Procedure for students who wish to study at the UPB as regular students in an undergraduate program.

Instructions for Colombians or foreign secondary education graduates who wish to be accepted in an undergraduate program at the UPB.

If you graduated abroad, you will be able to enroll in this University only if you have one of the following diplomas:

- The International Baccalaureate (IB); the German ABITUR; the French Baccalaureate; the European BAE; the Swiss MATURA; the USA Scholastics Assessment Test (SAT); the American College Testing (ACT).
- Another type of diploma recognized by the Andres Bello Convention <https://convenioandresbello.org/cab/que-es-el-cab/> and/or approved by the Embassy of Colombia in your country of residence.

You need a secondary school tests from the country which you finished your secondary education in, which allows the access to Superior Education in the country of origin (equivalent to the Colombian ICFES www.icfes.gov.co). If this type of test does not exist in your country, you will have to take the ICFES in Colombia.

The following documents must have the Hague Apostille in order to be sent to the Office of Admissions (Registro Académico) of the UPB, in the case that you are accepted in an undergraduate program (you must do the normal process with the faculty selected to be accepted).

- Secondary Education Certificate or Diploma.
- International test or baccalaureate score.
- Secondary Education diploma obtained in the country where you finished your Secondary Education (equivalent to Colombian ICFES).

If accepted, you will have to obtain the equivalence of your diploma:

- For a diploma issued by a country member of the Andres Bello Convention, contact the Bogotá headquarters.
www.convenioandresbello.info
- For a diploma issued by another country, you will have to obtain the equivalence through the procedure established by the Ministry of National Education of Colombia.
www.mineduacion.gov.co

The same instructions apply to students who wish to be transferred from a foreign university to the UPB, but they will also have to send their official copy of grades from their university of origin (with the Hague Apostille) with the description of each passed subject in order to have them recognized.
